Editor's Preface

In this our sixth biennial edition of THE AMERICAN CATHOLIC WHO'S WHO, all the biographies have again been returned to their subjects for bringing up to date, and more than six hundred new biographies have been added to the volume.

Since this edition will likely be the last for the duration, a second checking was given the manuscript just before going to press. It may have to be the current edition for a long time.

In most instances where entries are now in military service, only that fact has been noted. Since their status and location are subject to sudden and frequent change, it was deemed preferable to await the conclusion of the war before attempting to provid a complete account of their participation in it.

The delay in publication is not to be wondered at; what is, is the fact that we are able to issue it at all.

I believe you will find this edition to have been well worth waiting for.
